Student and Parent Responsibility

It is incumbent upon students and parents to provide timely access to coursework and school contact information in order for Blue Ribbon Scholars to provide excellent academic services to our students. All enrolled students must provide syllabi and/or curricula in advance of sessions conducted by Blue Ribbon Scholars.

Student Enrollment Application

Students enrolled with Blue Ribbon Scholars should come prepared to study hall and 1:1 sessions with the required academic work to be completed. Parents are responsible for ensuring that their students have access to the assignments required by their school.

Academic Honesty

Students and parents acknowledge that Blue Ribbon Scholars services are provided for the purpose of facilitating learning, not cheating. Students and parents agree not to use Blue Ribbon Scholars services for any purpose in violation of the academic honesty policy or other conduct policies of their school, university, academic institution, or workplace.

In the spirit of academic and personal integrity, students will write and sign an honor code statement on all work completed for a grade while participating in the Blue Ribbon Scholars program. Students will write the statement “This is my own work” and sign below on tests, quizzes, papers, and other graded assignments.

Monitoring Academic Performance

At the conclusion of each study hall session, the student will fill out a progress report, including a self-appraisal, in conjunction with the Blue Ribbon Scholars learning coach present. Blue Ribbon Scholars will maintain these records and communicate on a weekly basis with the student’s school teachers/administrators, and parents.

At the conclusion of each 1:1 session, the Blue Ribbon Scholars learning coach will fill out a progress report that details specific topics covered, areas of and for improvement, and any practice work assigned. This progress report will be communicated to school teachers/administrators and parents within 24 hours of completing the session.
